

The heatmap displays a 15x15 matrix. The diagonal elements are dark red, representing a value of 2.0. The off-diagonal elements are mostly light blue, representing values near 0.0. There are several darker blue elements scattered throughout the matrix, indicating negative values. The color scale on the right ranges from -1.0 (dark blue) to 2.0 (dark red).